ICE cannot legally enter your home unless they have a warrant signed by a judge. Usually, the agents will have the wrong kind of warrant, or an incomplete one – if they have anything at all.

DON'T LET TRUMP AND ICE WIN WITHOUT A FIGHT!

Papers or not, everyone has certain rights they can use when an agent is trying to deport them. We are workers with dignity and we deserve to stay where we are. One of the most important things to remember is to refuse to open the door unless ICE has a signed warrant from a judge.

ICE CANNOT LEGALLY ENTER YOUR HOME WITHOUT THIS WARRANT.

If an ICE agent or someone you suspect is from ICE knocks on your door, calmly and firmly ask them to slide the warrant under the door.

- ★ If the agent doesn't have a warrant — DON'T OPEN
- ★ If the agent shows you a warrant that doesn't have a signature on it — DON'T OPEN
- ★ If the agent shows you a warrant signed by someone who is not a judge — DON'T OPEN
- ★ If the agent shows up and says they're from the local police and just want to talk — DON'T OPEN
- ★ If the agent shows up and has a signed warrant from a judge but the person listed does not live at your address — DON'T OPEN
